OEM friends,

This came in last week, and it slipped through the cracks with everything else going on. I think I failed to send it to you.

Deliberative Process/Ex. 5

It is possible that you have already seen these, but I wanted to make sure you have them. We have started working on our questions. It might make sense for us to coordinate on a single response to Mathy, or we can respond separately.

So, please let us know if you agree with who should be responding. And let us know if you have any thoughts about how we might coordinate on responding.

Sorry for the delay, and thanks for your help. – Dana S

Hi folks. Attached below is the note that the Administrator sent to Mathy in response to him sharing the mining sites update [on the 15 sites originally flagged for shutdown]. I have annotated in red my thoughts on how we might respond and/or who might respond. I would like to, later today, send this out more broadly after you folks have a chance to review.
